Dear Mr. Nimmo:

On April 30, 1999, the Federal Election Commission and your clients entered into a conciliation agreement in settlement of violations of 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1)(A), 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(f), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. According to the conciliation agreement, your clients were required to pay a civil penalty of $20,000 by May 30, 1999, which was 30 days from the agreement's effective date.

According to Commission records, and as we discussed during our phone conversation today, your clients' payment has not been received. Please be advised that, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(D), violation of any provision of the conciliation agreement may result in the institution of a civil suit for relief in the United States District Court. Unless we receive the payment from your clients by September 22, 1999, this Office may recommend that the Commission file suit to remedy this violation.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,
